“Your annual tax-deductible donation helps us continue the work of promoting the cultural and natural resources that are unique to the Bear River Heritage Area.”

WHO WE ARE

The Bear River Heritage Area (BRHA) consists of seven counties: Bear Lake, Caribou, Franklin, and Oneida in Idaho; and Box Elder, Cache, and Rich in Utah. It is a consortium of organizations in government, business, education, tourism, recreation, and conservation.

MISSION

The Bear River Heritage Area's mission is to identify, preserve, and enhance our cultural and natural heritage, and to support and sustain the diverse economic opportunities associated with the Heritage Area.

WHAT WE DO

- » Documentation of heritage sites, businesses, and events
- » Development of educational materials and guides
- » Cemetery survey and preservation
- » Barn survey and preservation
- » Oral histories
- » Public outreach and volunteer work

BECOME A FRIEND OF THE HERITAGE AREA

A Friend is someone who supports what we do. We may have interviewed you about a skill or tradition you keep alive. You may be the owner of a barn we have documented. You may be a quilter or other heritage artisan we have promoted. You may be a tribal community with whom we have shared cultural heritage traditions and gatherings.

Your annual tax-deductible donation helps us continue the work of promoting the cultural and natural resources that are unique to the Bear River Heritage Area.
